

Office of the President of the Philippines
Malacañang

76 -
Feb. 10, 1970
Tuesday

12:15 AM

Have just met with the KM, NATU, MASA, from 6:00 PM to 11:15 PM. They claim they will not engage in a hate-morass campaign but will limit their demands - tration to the campuses and prevent violence.

From the NUSP also want to meet with us.
And so do the Upsilonians.

We are succeeding in dividing the student leaders into the radicals and the moderates.

How had to grant some of their demands - things that I wanted to do anyway:

But four enlisted men were killed at Irapuacan, Tarlac by mass behavior to be mass at 1:00 PM today.

The demands of the radicals are socialistic if not communist - not merely nationalistic. We will have to play along with them, take away their steam while we go after the mass and the HMBs.

Malde met with the two Cardinals (Pr. de Holguin Gonzaga and Alberto) on the problem of the Jesuits and the ultra-liberal priests. They intend to put up a magazine and a newspaper.

Have asked Gen. Arzugi to resign his position as senior aide so he can devote his full time to the Bulletin, Sinagwa, his business interests and the preparation of a house in Australia and San Francisco if necessary.
