

Dec. 26, 1941.

At 6:30 a.m. I attended mass and received Holy Communion. At 8 a.m. I went to see General MacArthur and I asked him to assign me some work as this inactivity is terrible. He thanked me and asked me to wait, as he had plans in which he wanted to utilize me. His office was being installed at "top side" at the extreme end of the long concrete barracks. The outside door and windows of his office and the windows of the adjoining ones were being protected with sandbags. I returned to the tunnel.

21. At 4 p.m. went to the Post Exchange at top side to buy some things I needed urgently.

Dec. 28, 1941 Sunday.

I attended mass at 6:30 a.m. After mass I had breakfast and then went to the Cottage assigned to us to take a bath and change clothes. At 9 a.m. Col. Willoughby G-2 Usafe. arrived and told me that Gen. MacArthur wanted to see me rush. I dressed hurriedly and proceeded to the house of Gen. Moore which Gen. MacArthur was occupying. He received me and instructed me to
