MALACAÑAN PALACE
MANILA

It is now my birthday. I am 55.
And I feel more physically and mentally robust than in the past decade. And have acquired valuable experience to boot.
Energy and wisdom — the philosophers heaven.

Parade and Review — in the rain. I trooped the line in a raincoat and hat. Felt good.
"The freedom that we pledge ourselves to is a native concept of freedom — not an alien one."

The history of our people show this.
The Philippines was the land of freedom.
So I come to bear witness to the renewal of your pledge to that freedom.
And I am proud to be counted as another soldier who also says — For freedom, Battle to the Death.

MALACANAN PALACE
MANILA

Briefing by Sec. Ponce Encule and the Ramos to the governors, city mayors and municipal mayors.

Organize a mayors league.

Strike licenses and weapons on a case to case basis.

In the afternoon, at 5:00 P.M., the National Museum opened its new quarters at the 3rd floor of the Agriculture Bldg. as a birthday gift to me — The Ancient Philippines
Here and there up to modern times

I hope to be able to compile with Inalde an Encyclopedic of Ancient Philippines.
