

MALACAÑAN PALACE
MANILA

Nov. 15, 1944

I have just received this morning the credentials of the first Vietnamese ambassador. We hope to have the Vietnamese foreign minister as a state guest soon. We are moving along in the implementation of the policy of friendship with the Vietnamese.

Working on the bases negotiations position especially on the transfer of administration, criminal jurisdiction and the refusal list of war materials needed for SRDP.

Met with the Federal Republic of Germany Minister of State for Foreign Relations, the deputy of the German Foreign Minister for lunch.

On the economic cooperation, a public relations firm in the U.S. has been contracted to work on it.