

MALACAÑAN PALACE
MANILA

Nov. 24, 1977

I have decided to add interest to the referendum campaign by picking Ex-Pres. Marcos as the best straw man and issuing an answer to his charges before the Manila Lions Club under Cesar Suro on the UNLF leaving scene brought about by the proclamation of martial law, martial law lifting and my resigning as president and leaving the country so that there would be free elections.