Sunday

Dined comparatively.

Easter Sunday hunt for the children at the Bowl and Pergola. June and June got the big eggs worth ₱50. The bunnies are worth ₱15 and the eggs ₱2.00.
There were at least twenty five children of all types of friends.
June and June left with some of the children for Manila after the war as they have a lot of homework to do although there are no classes
tomorrow.

Lunch with the other half of the 5th
Fighter Wing jet fighter pilots.

Then a nap from 2-3 PM although I could not sleep well and get from 3 to 6 - 15 holes.

The Manila Chronicle has come out this Sunday with a vicious front page editorial on Martial Law which included a cartoon of the country tied up captive with all the rats representing the ills of the country and the sword of Jimones Martial Law over his head.

It sounded like an Eric Grouda or IP phony editorial. They must be agitated by the fear of arrest if I suggest the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus.
