Panamá museum - complete set of Indonesian musical instruments and books.

It is my feeling that Pres. Soebarto now trusts the Philippines and really respects Filipino capability. He is impressed by our industrialization efforts although he is proud of his oil production. ($500 million is the share of Indonesia - 50% of total produce) The wells in the offshore drilling in Java are now producing 150,000 barrels a day (six wells out of 98 drillings) Esso has announced another discovery just off the boundary of the Philippines.
