MALACAÑAN PALACE

MANILA

I explained to them that the less it is made to appear that they are protecting the First Lady and the less she is mentioned the better.

But a quiet, unobtrusive effort must be made to build up her defenses by an open defense of the delegates.

The Council should now finish a constitution and prepare to close its work after disposing of the charges of Quintana who did not appear again in the committee hearing today, protesting illness.

Tomorrow we give a luncheon for Kendall, the Pepsi Cola owner and adviser to Pres. Nixon.
