Ordered the continuation of the investigations on the MIA burning. One confession has been obtained of arson.

Met Rep. Sester Wolfe of New York and a tourist promoter on Philippine tourism.

Then the offer of barter to rebuild the MIA, no interest, no down payments, all amortizations only from fees.

Suggested the new MIA at Bataan. And asked for a formal offer.

Mon. Gavira came to report the favorable reaction of the hierarchy to my request for the cooperation of the church in the fight against communism.

Then attended to the political leaders. Congratulated the Con-Con delegate leaders who helped vote down the anti-7th resolution.

Have started a new book on Philippine and Southeast Asia developments.
