

Chiang Kuo, son of Chiang Kai shek and their apparent, is Kuanai-branch and also a Purnai wife. He however, (it is claimed) was because he was a Purnai factory worker who be worked in a Purnai factory.

10:00 PM

1084
 May 23, 1972
 Wednesday

MALACAÑAN PALACE
 MANILA

Inelda and the children have left London for Rome this afternoon. They should be calling anytime now.

Received the credentials of the National Chinese ambassador. He assured me they would not enter any military agreements with Russia although Mr. Chiang before that I met the Japanese ambassador on the Commodity Loan and Project Loan agreement. They insist on the Andarus telecommunication and we insist on other projects like Cagayan ^{history} project, Siguan warbler reclamation project and ^{him} Geothermal project. And held a conference on the

1. Trade with Russia to be handled through Japan - our Amb. Benedicto and the Russian ambassador
2. Brdaco - a commitment to Sen-Joy ad Ellouber
3. I M T F M - why no tie up between the producers and consumers up to now
4. Why no office attends to visitors who want to invest in the Phil. or trade with it. I directed the Sec of Commerce to meet with the Sec of Foreign Affairs, BOI, Central Bank, Dept of Agriculture
5. DBP is not helping in investment - not even guarantees. More aggressive.

1085
Mar. 23rd (Cont)

MALACAÑAN PALACE

6. PNB - I ^{MANILA} authorized it to float bonds provided that they present enough collateral

We are checking the deficiencies in our industrial development. One of them would be oil.

Then a good heat-treatment plant which could be like Cavendish-Dyson Corporation. And an industrial refractory factory for high-heat ceramics.