Have finished the outline on The Asian Dilemma, the Philippine Paradox.

But problems on the Japanese loan's (Project Loan of $25 million and $10 million commodity loans) have superseded. The Philippine negotiators, as usual, are timid and act like beggars. I have insisted on our making our own ticket of projects.

Then the various projects for legislation.

And the criminal cases coming up for final analysis and prosecution: Plaza Miranda; ~~the~~ the burning; the Stoilo murders; The Tarlac syndicates.

But I have spent much time also on the raw materials for the strategy of Development which I would like to entitle The Philippine Republic.
