8:00 Saturday - April 23, 1939.

8:30

9:00 I decide to quit the Philippine Army
 9:30 today. I will write Valdez my feelings
 10:00 about the selection of Racundo to the 10:30 FA School. I will assert boldly that 11:00 he could not pass the course, and will 11:30 not be a credit to the PA or to the 12:00 Filipino people.

12:30 In my letter to the President
 1:00 requesting relief I will state—
 1:30 I am subjected to a severe strain
 2:00 amidst a surroundings where 2:30 decisions are made not on 3:00 sound military precepts but on 3:30 expediences where reward is given 4:00 not on the demonstrated results of 4:30 effort but on how close you are 5:00 to those that make decisions,
 5:30 where honesty and convictions are 6:00 not the basis of decisions but 6:30 the desire to please. My character
 7:00 rebels under these surroundings
 7:30 and I can not give my best to my work. I lose faith in 8:00 the future of the army unless more

8:30 strict adherence to principles is made.

9:00 I work on only one principle—
9:30 that principle of carrying out a 10:00 military objective on the basis of 10:30 right and wrong. I have only 11:00 one standard. I can not function
11:30 in an atmosphere of varying 12:00 standards.

12:30
1:00 I will tell the President—
1:30 In this my last act as an officer
2:00 of the Philippine Army I want to 2:30 thank the President for reposing in 3:00 me his confidence as shown by my 3:30 commission and in the several 4:00 conferences on important matters
4:30 in which he sought my opinions.
